DWIGHT CARROLL,

Plaintiff,

KIRBY CHRISTOFF, et al.,

Defendants.

No. 2:21-cv-2326 CKD P

ORDER

Plaintiff, a state prisoner proceeding pro se, has filed a civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The federal venue statute provides that a civil action “may be brought in (1) a judicial district in which any defendant resides, if all defendants are residents of the State in which the district is located, (2) a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or a substantial part of property that is the subject of the action is situated, or (3) if there is no district in which an action may otherwise be brought as provided in this action, any judicial district in which any defendant is subject to the court’s personal jurisdiction with respect to such action.” 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b).

In this case, plaintiff’s claims arose in Marin County and it appears defendants reside there. Marin County lies within the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California. In the interest of justice, a federal court may transfer a complaint
